McCollum, Crowley, Moschet & Miller, Ltd. offers clients a wealth of legal experience across a broad range of subject areas. The firm provides legal advice, counsel and litigation services to corporations, insurance carriers, and individuals from offices in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Colorado.

The firm's practice extends to a number of legal areas, including (in alphabetical order):

- Appellate and motion practice;
- Civil litigation, particularly defense representation;
- Clergy and religious institutions;
- Commercial and business law;
- Construction law, including construction defects and mold claims;
- Environmental and toxic torts litigation;
- Fire, explosion and mass disaster litigation;
- Insurance law, including multi-party coverage litigation and coverage opinions;
- Litigation management and coordinating defense counsel;
- Personal injury and products liability law;
- Professional malpractice and negligence; and
- Workers' compensation law.

The firm has earned the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory's highest AV rating for legal ability and faithful adherence to professional and ethical standards, and has been recognized for high professional legal standards and ethics in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. A large part of the firm's practice is insurance coverage and defense, as well as insurance liability. McCollum Crowley is an "approved panel" law firm for many insurance companies and offers decades of collective litigation defense experience.

McCollum Crowley attorneys serve clients in four distinct ways:

- As defense counsel and defense litigators for claims and suits against businesses and carriers;
- As legal counsel to business and individuals seeking to avoid liabilities and protect legal rights; and
- As litigation managers and coordinating counsel for businesses with high self-retentions and/or large case loads; and
- In appropriate cases, as legal representatives for clients asserting rights in civil actions.
